PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Governor's Commission on Disabilities (GCD) Fellowships provides semester long part-time placements with the Commission in Cranston, RI, working on disability policy and research. The Fellow will assist one of the committees and, through individualized learning experiences, become familiar with procedures used to design and implement disability policy. Mentor experiences will introduce the Fellow to disability policy issues and actions at the local, state, and federal levels. The Governor's Commission on Disabilities is an independent state agency responsible for reviewing all state laws, programs, and policies concerning children and adults with disabilities and making policy recommendations to the Governor and the General Assembly.

THE FELLOWSHIP OFFERS

As a GCD Fellow, you will be assigned to a specific placement, providing assistance to the Commission in disability policy. The fellowship offers you a unique opportunity to:

- ◆ Gain perspective on the role and responsibility of the Commission;
- ◆ Expand your knowledge of national/state disability programs, policy issues and research;
- ◆ Meet with decision makers, experts and critics in disability and related policy fields and;
- ◆ Develop networks with local, regional, and national based experts, and researchers who can assist in career development and future endeavors.

The Commission will provide a living expense stipend of $3,450 during the semester and reimbursement for authorized travel.

WHAT YOU OFFER THE FELLOWSHIP

As a GCD Fellow, you will provide assistance to the Commission as it relates to disability policy and / or the formulation of legislation. At least one GCD Fellowship is available each semester. Students wanting to see the "policy" side as opposed to the "clinical" side of the human service system would find the fellowships a worthwhile experience. The "Mary Brennan Fellow" assists in the Commission's conduct a series of Public Forums on the Concerns of People with Disabilities and their Families are held annually during the week the anniversary of the signing of the Americans with Disabilities (July 26th). The "Edward J. Schroeder Fellow", which is offered in the spring, tracks legislation, edits a weekly news bulletin and assists in the development of legislation impact statements for the Governor and General Assembly. The "G. Frank Hanaway Fellow" assists in Civil Rights enforcement and technical assistance activities. A Complete description of each of the fellowships is attached.

ELIGIBILITY

This program is designed for individuals with demonstrated leadership and expertise in policy and research affecting people with disabilities. Candidates must:

- ◆ Have completed at least 3 semesters of college-level study;

- ◆ Be enrolled as a full or part-time student in an accredited college or university in Rhode Island;
- ◆ Have leadership ability;
- ◆ Have the endorsement of a current/former supervisor;
- ◆ Have approval on the part of the college/university to receive credit for the fellowship if selected;
- ◆ Have the ability to participate in the semester-long program in Rhode Island for at least two hundred and forty (240) hours during the semester; and
- ◆ Demonstrate the ability to perform the duties of the fellowship (see list of duties on the attached pages).

APPLICATION PERIODS

The Commission accepts applications in September for the Fall Semester, January for the Spring Semester, and June for the Summer Semester. See the front cover for the deadline for the coming semester or contact the Commission at (401) 462-0100 [voice] 462-0106 [fax], tty via 711, or you can e-mail us at disabilities@gcd.ri.gov.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The Commission urges college students with disabilities, from minority groups, and those enrolled in a course of study in education or human services for persons with disabilities to apply. The commission gives preference in its selection of fellows to Rhode Island residents who are: (1) College students with disabilities, then to (2) College students enrolled in a course of study in education and/or human services for persons with disabilities, and finally to (3) non-residents.
